Fork Print Flowers

INSPIRED BY

There are many colorful flowers outside! What colorful flowers have you seen? Artist Laura Wheeler Waring painted Untitled (Still Life with Tulips and Figurine) around 1940. Create your own floral masterpiece using the directions below.

DIRECTIONS

Supplies

- A sheet of heavy paper, such as cardstock
- Forks
- Paint in a variety of colors
- Green marker or crayon
- A paper plate

1. Pour your paint onto your paper plate.
2. Dip your fork into the paint. Make sure the entire back of the fork is coated in paint!
3. Stamp the fork onto your paper to create a flower! Continue stamping your paper with different color flowers until you are happy with your creation. Use a green marker or crayon to create stems, leaves, and the ground.
